

French Language Immersion Student Residence Scholarship

Description: The Emily Jayne Robinson Scholarship Fund generously supports BYU students studying French by scholarships to French majors and minors living in the French apartments at BYU's Language Immersion Student Residence.

Amount: $200 - $500 (according to discretion of Gift Fund Committee). Funds to be disbursed in the present semester or term.

Qualifications: Applicants must be full-time students of BYU-Provo who are currently declared as a French major/minor, French Studies secondary major, or French Teaching major/minor and who will be living in the LISR during the Winter 2023 semester. Additionally, students must have at least a 3.0 GPA. As per the scholarship fund's stipulations, preference will be given to French-speaking students from Africa and students with greater financial need. While priority is given to students who fit these profiles, other students may also receive scholarships.

To Apply: Applicants can visit <https://forms.gle/1oGhjWb9UvKQ4hbj6> to access the application and upload the following required materials:

- Current CV (in English).
- Current BYU grade report.
- A letter detailing the applicant's motivation for studying French (100-150 words; written in English).

Additional Requirements: Each recipient of the scholarship will be required to submit a brief letter (Approximately 1 page, in English) to the Gift & Scholarship Fund Committee reporting on how they benefited both from the scholarship and from his or her studies in French.

Funds will be disbursed upon successful submission of this letter.

Application Deadline: February 24, 2023
