

Emily Jayne Robinson

Language Immersion Student Residence Scholarship

Description: The Emily Jayne Robinson Scholarship Fund generously supports BYU students pursuing a degree in a French program. Among those eligible to receive funds are students living in the French apartments at BYU's Language Immersion Student Residence (LISR).

Amount: According to discretion of Gift Fund Committee, several scholarships of $200 - $500 will be awarded and disbursed during the present semester.

Qualifications: Applicants must be full-time students of BYU-Provo and residents of the French apartments in the LISR who are currently declared as a French major/minor, French Studies secondary major, or French Teaching major/minor. Additionally, students must have at least a 3.0 GPA. As per the endowment fund's stipulations, preference will be given to students with relatively greater financial need and/or to French-speaking students from Africa; however, other students are strongly encouraged to apply.

To Apply: Applicants can visit <https://forms.gle/wHe9UCRT5fWFvY6a7> to access the application and submit the following required materials:

- Current BYU grade report
- A 100-150 word letter describing your motivation for studying French (in English; 8.5x11 format)

Additional Requirements: Recipients of the scholarship will be required to submit a brief letter (Approximately 1 page, in English) written to the Emily Jayne Robinson family. The letter serves as a way for the donor family to learn about the students who receive the scholarship and how the fund is helping them accomplish their educational and professional goals.

This letter must be submitted to the Gift & Scholarship Fund Committee (see contact email below) before the funds are disbursed.

Application Deadline: October 11, 2023
