

Emily Jayne Robinson Scholarship

Description: The Emily Jayne Robinson Scholarship Fund generously supports BYU students by offering scholarships to those majoring or minoring in French, French Studies (as a secondary major), and French Teaching (major or minor).

Amount: $500 or more depending on quality of eligible applications and at the discretion of the committee.

Disbursement: Recipients may elect for disbursement at the beginning of the 2026 spring term, summer term, or fall semester.

Eligibility: Applicants must be:

Full-time students at BYU-Provo and currently declared as one of the French majors/minors.

Have at least a 3.0 GPA.

Students graduating during the present semester are not eligible.

While preference will be given to eligible French-speaking students from Africa and students with greater financial needs (as per the donor's stipulations), we actively encourage all students who meet eligibility standards to apply.

To Apply:

1. Complete the application found at:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdqQmGjfsIp9wSNAQ9nFrRfXc0xRoc4ksifkaK2m_EFJZU4Gw/viewform?usp=header

2. Email the following required materials to French_Italian_Scholarships@byu.edu:

- Current CV (8.5" x 11" .pdf in English)
- Current BYU grade report (.pdf)
- A brief statement (without using AI) outlining the applicant's motivation for studying French and how they would benefit from this scholarship and what their anticipated use of French language and culture would be (300–450 words; .pdf; in English).

Requirements for Disbursement: Before funds can be disbursed, recipients of the scholarship will be required to write a brief letter (300–450 words) in which they introduce themselves to the donor and detail how they benefit from the scholarship and their studies of French. The letter should be submitted to the Gift & Scholarship Fund Committee via email (see below).
